

HELP US CELEBRATE 150 YEARS OF THE ERIE DEPOT WITH 150 NEW MEMBERS!

Since its construction in 1875, the Erie Depot on Franklin Avenue has stood as a symbol of Kent's industry, commerce, and community. Kent Historical Society was founded in 1971 with the express purpose of saving the building from demolition, preserving an important piece of local history which has since housed beloved establishments like the Pufferbelly and Over Easy. In 2025, as we celebrate the Depot's 150th anniversary, we hope to grow our membership base by at least 150 new additions to the KHS family. You can help!

Your annual membership gift will:

- Earn you special offers and invitations
- Help us continue to preserve and share artifacts of local history in our exhibits
- Keep our Museum free to all visitors
- Aid our educational programs and field trips for children in Kent schools
- Fund our stewardship of important historical sites and structures
